

Code of Conduct

Kleinburg Tennis Club, hereafter referred to as "The Club".

All players, their supporters, and officials have a duty to encourage and maintain the highest standards of sportsmanship, courtesy and fair play, and are under an obligation to avoid all conduct, acts or practices, which are perceived to be detrimental to the integrity of the Game.

1 Fair Play - Players shall call all balls, double bounces, and foul shots, fairly and honestly as described in the latest edition of the "Rules of the Court" and adhere to the Code for playing without a chair umpire. This includes calling out the score after every point, using score cards when provided, and making out calls loudly or sufficiently visible so one's opponent is aware of the call, etc. Line calls must be made so that one does not have a second chance to win the point. That is, the call is to be made before one's own next shot lands out, bounces twice, goes into the net or hits a permanent fixture.

2 Abuse of Balls - Players and their supporters shall not violently, dangerously or with anger hit, kick or throw a tennis ball while on the court except in the reasonable pursuit of a point during a match (including warm-up). For purposes of this rule, abuse of balls is defined as intentionally or recklessly hitting a ball out of the enclosure of the court, hitting a ball dangerously within the court or hitting a ball with disregard of the consequences.

For the purpose of this rule verbal abuse is defined as any statement directed at another person that implies dishonesty or is derogatory, insulting or otherwise abusive.

6. Audible Obscenity - Players and their supporters, shall not use audible obscenities while on- site. An audible obscenity is defined as the use of words commonly known and understood to be profane and uttered clearly and loudly enough to be heard.

7. Visible Obscenity Players, and their supporters, shall not make obscene gestures while on- site. A visible obscenity is defined as the making of a sign with one's hands and/or racquet or balls that commonly have an obscene meaning.

10. Punctuality - Players are responsible for being ready to play when their match is called, which includes: wearing proper attire, having already used the washroom facilities, and preparation of all their equipment.

When a player is playing an Inter-county Tennis Association league match, player will follow all ICTA rules including punctuality, match start times and penalties associated to those rules.

11. Player Eligibility - Players may only enter and compete in league match or tournament category for which they are eligible.
